NOw Jhū ꝑ gentyll ꝑ bought Adam fro hell
Saue you all louerayncꝫ & solas you sende
And or this matter that I begynne to tell
I praye you of audyence tyll I haue made an ende
For I saye to you my name is pyte
That euer yet hath ben mannes frende
In the bosome of the seconde persone in trynyte
I sprange as a plante mannes mylle to amende
You for to helpe I put to my honde
Recorde I take of mary that wepte teres of blode
I pyte within her herte dyde stonde whan she sawe her sone on the rode
The swerde of sorowe gaue that lady wounde whan a spere claue her sones herte a sondre
She cryed out and fell to the grounde
Thoughe she was woo hyt was lytell wonder
This delycate colour that goodly lady
Full pale and wanne she sawe her sone all deed
Splayed on a crolle with the fyue welles of pyte
Of purple veluet poudred with roses reed
Lo I pyte thus made your erande to be spede
Or elles man for euer sholde haue ben forlorne
A mayden so layde his lyfe to wedde
Crowned as a kynge the thornes prycked hym sore
Charyte and I of true loue ledes the double rayne
Who so me loueth dampned neuer shall be
Of some vertuous company I wolde be fayne
For all that wyll to heuen nedes must come by me
Cheke porter I am in that heuenly tyte
And now here wyll I rest me a lytell space

Tyll hyt please Jhesu of his grace
Some vertuous kelyshyp for to sende
Contem: ¶ Cryste that was crystened crucyfyed & crowned placyon. In his bosum true loue was gaged with a spere
His baynes brast & brosed and to a pyller bounde with scourges he was lasshed ỹ knottes ỹ skyn tare
On his necke to caluary the grete crosse he bare
His blode ran to the grounde as scrypture doth tel
His burden was so heuy that downe vnder it he fel
Lo I am kynne to the lorde whiche is goddes sone
My name is wryten formest in the boke of lyfe
For I am perfyte contemplacyon
And brother to holy chyrche ỹ is our lordes wyfe
Johan baptyst Anthony & Jherome w̃ many mo
Folowed me here in holte hethe and in wyldernes
I euer with them went where they dyde go
Nyght & daye towarde the waye of ryghtwysenes
I am the chefe lanterne of all holynes
Of prelates and preestes I am theyr patron
No armure so stronge in no dystresse
Habergyon helme ne yet no Jeltron
To fyght with sathan I am the champyon
That dare abyde and manfully stonde
Fendes fle awaye where they se me come
But I wyll shewe you why I came to this londe
For to preche and teche of goddes soth lawes
Ayenst vyce ỹ dothe rebell ayenst hym & his lawes.
Pyte. ¶ God spede good broder fro whēs came you now
Contem. ¶ Syr I came frome perseueraunce to seke you
Pyte. ¶ Why syr knowe you me
Contem. ¶ Ye syr and haue done longe your name is pyte

Cyour name fayne wolde I knowde — Pyte.
CIn dede I am called contemplacyon — Contem.
That vseth to lyue solytaryly
In wodes and in wyldernesse I walke alone
Bycause I wolde saye my prayers deuoutly
I loue not with me to haue moche company
But perseueraunce ofte with me doth mete
Whan I thynke on thoughtes that is full heuenly
Thus he and I togyder full swetely doth slepe
CI thanke god that we be mette togyder — Pyte.
CSyr I trust ỳ perseuerũce shortly wyll come hyder — Contem.
CThan I thynke to here some good tydynge — Pyte.
CI warant you brother that he is comynge — Contem.
CThe eternall god that named was was messyas — Perseue.
He gyue you grace to come to his glorye
Whet euer is Joye in the celestyall place
Whan you of sathan wynneth the victorye
Euery man ought to be gladde to haue in company
For I am named good perseueraunce
That euer is guyded by vertuous gouernaunce
I am neuer vnstable but doth contynue
Styll goynge vpwarde the ladder of grace
And lode in me planted is so true
And fro ỳ poore man I wyll neuer tourne my face
Whan I go by my selfe ofte I do remembre
The grete kyndnes that god shewed vnto man
For to be borne in the moneth of decembre
Whan the daye wareth shorte and the nyght longe
Of his goodnesse that champyon stronge
Descended downe fro the fader of ryghtwysnes
And rested in mary the flour of mekenes

Now to this place hyder come I am
To seke contemplacyon my knynnesman
Contem. What brother perseueraunce ye be welcome
Perseue. And so be you also contemplacyon
Contem. Loo here is our mayster pyte
Perseue. Now truly ye be welcome in to this countre
Pyte. I thanke you hertely syr perseueraunce Perseue. Mayst pyte one thyng is com to my remembraūce what tythynges here you now
Pyte. Syr suche as I can I shall shewe you
I haue herde many men complayne pyteously
They saye they be smyten w̄ the swerde of pouerty
In euery place where I do go
Fewe frendes pouerte doth fynde
And these ryche men ben vnkynde
For theyr neyghboures they wyll nought do wydowes dooth curse lordes and gentyll men
For they constrayne them to mary with theyr men ye wheder they wyll or no
Men mary for good and that is dampnable.
ye with olde women that is fyfty and beyonde
The peryll now no man drede wyll
All is not goddes lawe that is vsed in londe
Beware wyll they not tyll deth in his honde
Taketh his swerde & smyteth asonder ỹ lyke payne
And w̄ his mortall stroke cleueth ỹ herte atwayne
They trust so in mercy the lanterne of bryghtnesse
That no thynge do they drede goddes ryghtwysnes
Perseue. O Jhesu syr here is a heuy tydynge
Pyte. Syr this is trewe that I do bringe
Contem. How am I beloued mayster pyte where ye com

¶ In good fayth people haue now small deuocyon Pyte.
And as for with you brother contemplacyon
There medleth fewe or none
¶ Yes I trust that prestes loue me wele Contem.
¶ But a fewe I wys and some neuer adele Pyte.
¶ Why syr without me they maye not lyue clene Contem.
¶ Nay ỹ is ỹ leest thoughe ỹ they haue of hystrene Pyte.
And that maketh me full heuy
¶ How trowe you that there be no remedy Contem.
¶ Full harde for synne is now so greuous and yll Pyte.
That I thynke that it be growen to an impossyble
And yet one thynge maketh me euer mournynge
That prestes lack vtteraūce to showe their cūnyge
And al the whyle that clerkes do vse so grete synne
Amonge the lay people loke neuer for no mendyge ¶ Mas that is a heuy case Perseue.
That so grete synnne is vsed in euery place
I praye god hyt amende
¶ Now god that euer hath ben mannes frende Contem.
Some better tydynges soone vs sende
For now I must be gone
Fare well good brotherne here
I grete eraūde I haue elles where
That must nedes be done
I trust I wyll not longe tary
Theder wyll I hye me shortely
And come agayne whan I haue done
¶ Hyder agayne I trust you wyll come Perseue.
Therfore god be with you
¶ Syr nedes I must departe now Content.
Jhesu me spede this daye

Perleue. Now brother contemplacyon let vs go our waye
Frewyll Aware felowes and stande a roume
How saye you am not I a goodly personne
I trowe you knowe not suche a geste
What syres I tell you my name is frewyll
I maye chose whether I do good or yll
But for all that I wyll do as me lyst
My condycyons ye knowe not perde
I can fyght chyde and be mery
Full soone of my company ye wolde be wery
And you knewe all
What fyll the cup and make good cheer
I trowe I haue a noble here
Who lente hyt me by cryste a frere
And I gaue hym a fall
Where be ye syr be ye at home
Kockes passyon my noble is tourned to a stone
Where laye I last beshrewe your herte Jone
Now by these bones she hathe begyled me
Let se a peny my souper a pece of flesshe. x. pence
My bedde ryght wought let all this expence
Now by these bones I haue lost an halfpeny
Who laye there my felowe Imaginacyon
Ye and I had good communycacyon
Of syr Johan and sydbell
How they were spyed in bedde togyder
And he prayed her ofte to come thyder
For to synge lo le lo lowe
They twayne togyder had good spoyte
But at the stewes syde I lost a grote
I trowe I shall neuer ythe.

Finis

My felowe promyſed me here to mete
But I trowe the horeſone be aſlepe
With a wenche ſome where Now Imagynacyon come hyder
And you thryue I loſe a feder
Belhrowe your herte appere
What how how who called after me — Imagy.
Come nere ye ſhall neuer I the — Frewyll where haue ye be ſo longe
By god with me hyt is all wronge — Imagy.
I haue a payre of ſore buttockes
All in Irons was my ſonge
Euen now I ſatte gyued in a payre of ſtockes
Cockes paſſyon and how ſo — Frewyll
Syr I wyll tell you what I haue do — Imagy.
I mette with a wenche and ſhe was fayre
And of loue hertely I dyde praye her
And ſo promyſed her monaye
Syr ſhe wynked on me and ſayd nought
But by her loke I knewe her thought
Than in to loues daunce we were brought
That we played the pyrdelhy
I wote not what we dyde togyder
But a knaue catchpoll myghed vs nere
And ſo dyde vs aſpye
A ſtrype he gaue me I ſledde my touche
And from my gyrdle he plucked my pouche
By your leue he left me neuer a peny
Loo nought haue I but a ſuckyll
Ane yet I can Imagen thynges ſotyll
For to get monaye plenty

In westmynster hall euery terme I am
To me is kynne many a grete gentyll man
I am knowen in euery countre
And I were deed the lawyers craft were lost
For this wyll I do yf men wolde do cost
Proue ryght wronge and all by [illegible]
And make men lese bothe hous and londe
For all that they can do in a lytell season
Vecche men of treason preuyly I can
And whan me lyst to hange a trewe man
If they wyll me monaye tell
Theues I can helpe out of prison
And in to lordes fauours I can get me soone
And be of theyr preuy counseyll
But frewyll my dere broder
Sawe you not of hycksconner
He promysed me to come hyder

Frewyll. Why syr knowest thou hym

Imagy. Eye ye man he is full nye of my kynne
And in newgate we dwelled togyder
For he and I were bothe shakeled in a fetter

Frewyll Syr laye you beneth or on hye on the seller

Imagy. Nay ywys amõge ỹ thyckest of ỹme of the coller

Frewyll By god than ye were in grete fere

Imagy. Syr had not I be.cc. had be thrast in an halfere

Frewyll And what lyfe haue they there al that grete route

Imagy. By god syr ones a yere some taw halfs of dourpoze ye at tyburne there stondeth the grete frame
And some take a fall that maketh theyr neck lame

Frewyll. Eye but can they than go no moze

Imagy. O no man the wyrst is wyfle so soze

For as soone as they haue layd in man' thas ones
By god theyr brethe is stopped at ones
¶ Why do they praye in that place there Frewyll ¶ Ye syr they stonde in grete fere Imagy.
And so fast tangled in that snare
Yt falleth to theyr lotte to haue the same share
¶ That is a knauisshe syght to se thē tott on a beme Frewyll ¶ Syr the horesones coude not conuaye clene Imagy.
For and they coude haue caryed by craste as I can
In peesse of yeres eche of thē sholde be a gētyll mā
Yet as for me I was neuer theke
Yf my hādes were smytē of I can stele w̄ my tethe
For ye knowe well there is craste in daubynge
I can loke in a mannes face and pycke his purse
And tell newe tydynges ꝑ was neuer trewe ywys
For my hood is all lyned with lesynge
¶ Ye but wente ye neuer to tyburne a pylgrymage Frewyll.
¶ No ywys nor none of my lygnages Imagy.
For we be clerkes all and can our necke verse
And w̄ an oyntmeut the Juges hāde I can grece
That wyll hele sores that be vncurable
¶ Why were ye neuer founde repreuable Frewyll
¶ Yes ones I stall a hors in the felde Imagy.
And lepte on hym for to haue ryden my waye
At the last a bayly me mette and beheelde
And badde me stonde than was I in a fraye
He asked wheder with that horse I wolde gon
And than I tolde hym hyt was myne owne
He sayd I hadde stollen hym and I sayde naye
This is sayd he my brothers hacknaye
For and I had not scused me without fayle

By ourlady he wolde haue lad me strayte to Jayle
And than I tolde hym ꝑ horse was lyke myne
A browne baye a longe mane & dyde halte behynde
Thus I tolde hym ꝑ such an other hors I dyde lacke
And yet I neuer sawe hym nor came on his backe
So I delyuered hym the hors agayne
And whan he was gone than was I fayne
For and I had not scused me the better
I knowe well I sholde haue daunsed in a fetter

Frewyll And sayd he nomore to the but so

Imagy. Yes he pretended me moche harme to do
But I tolde hym that mornynge whs a grete mysse
That what horse hyt was I ne wyste
Also I sayd that in my heed I had the megryne
That made me dasell so in myne eyen
That I myght not well se
And thus he departed shortely frome me,

Frewyll Ye but where is hycksconer now

Imagy. Some of these yonge men hathe hydde hym in theyr bosomes I warraunt you

Imagy. Let vs make a crye that he maye vs here

Frewyll. How how hycksconer appere
I trowe thou be hyde in some cornere

Hycksco. Ale the helme ale vere shot of vere sayle vera

Frewyll Cockes body herke he is in a shyppe on the see

Hycksco. God spede god spede who called after me

Imagy. What brother welcome by this precyous body
I am gladde that I you se
Hyt was tolde me that ye were hanged
But out of what countre come ye

Hycksco. Syr I haue ben in many a countre

As in fraunce Irlonde and in spayne
Dozt pngale seuyll also in almayne
Freslonde flaunders and in burgoyne
Calabze poyle and ertagoyne
Bzytayne byske and also in galcoyne
Naples grece and in myddes of scotlonde
At cape saynt vyncent & in the newe founde Ilonde
I haue ben in gene and in cowe
Also in the londe of rumbelowe
Thze myle out of hell
At rodes constantyne and in babylonde
In cornewale and in no nozthumberlonde
Where men fethe russhes in gruell
Ye syz in caldey tartare and Jude
And in ỹ londe of women ỹ fewe men dothe synde
In all these countres haue I be Syz what tydynges here ye now on the lee
We mette of shyppes a grete naue
Full of people that wolde in to Irlonde
And they came out of this countre
They wyll neuer moze come to englonde
Whens were ỹ shyppes of them knowest ỹ none
Herke & I wyll shewe you theyz names eche one
Fyzst was the regent with the myghell of bzykstle
The george with the gabzyell and the anne of foye
The starre of salte & the with the Jhesus of plimoth
Also the hermytage with the barbara of dartmouth
The nycolas and the mary bellouse of bzystowe
With the clyn of london and James also Grete was the people that was in them
All true religyous and holy women

Fredwyll.
Hyckscoz.
Imagy.
Hyckscoz.

There was trouthe and his kynnesman with pacyence mekenes and humylyte
And all true maydens with theyr bryghtnyte
Ryall prechers sadnes and charyte
Ryght constyence and fayth with deuocyon
And all true monkes that kepte theyr relyon
True byers and sellers and almes dede doers
Pytcous people that be of synne destroyers with Just abstynence and good counseyllers
Mourners for synne with lamentacyon
And good ryche men ỹ helpeth folke out of pryson True wedlocke was there also with yonge men that euer in prayer dyde go
The shyppes were ladē w̄ suche vnhappy company
But at the laste god shope a remedy
For they all in the see were drounde
And on a quycke sonde they strake to grounde
The see swalowed them euerychone
I wote wote well alyue there scaped none

Imagy. Lo now my herte is gladde and mery
For Joye now let vs synge dery dery

Hycksor Felowes they shall neuer more vs withstonde
For I se them all drowned in the rale of Irlonde

Frewyll. Eye but yet herke hycksorner what company was in your shyppe that came ouer

Hycksor. Syr I wyll sayd you to vnderstande
There were good felawes aboue fyue thousande
And all they ben kynne to vs thre
There was falshode fauell and sotylte ye theues and hores with other good company
Lyers bacbyters and flaterers the whyle

Braulers lyers getters and chyders
Walkers by nyght with gret e murderers
Ouerthwarte gyle and Joly carders
Oppressers of people with many swerers
There was false lawe with orryble vengeaunce
Frowarde obstynacyō w̄ myscheuous gouernaūce
Wanton wenches and also mychers
With many other of the deuylles officers
And hatetede that is so myghty and stronge
Hath made auowe for euer to dwell in englonde
¶But is that true that thou doste shewe now — Imagy.
¶Syr euery worde as I do tell you — Hycksor.
¶Of whens is your shyppe of london — Frewyll.
¶Ye ywys frome thens dyde she come — Hycksor.
And she is named the enuy
I tell you a grete vessell and a myghty
The owner of her is called yll wyll
Brother to Jacke poller of shoters hyll
¶Syr what office in the shyppe bare ye — Imagy.
¶Mary I kepte a fayre shoppe of baudrye — Hycksor
I had thre wenches that were full praty
Jane true and thryfties and wanton sybble
If ye ryde her a Journay she wyll make you merry
For she is trusty at nede
If ye wyll hyre her for your pleasure
I warraunt tere her shall ye neuer
She is so sure in dede
Ryde and you wyll ten tymes adaye
I warraunt you she wyll neuer saye nays
My lyfe I dare laye to wedde
¶Now plucke vp your hertes & make good chere — Imagy.

These tydynges lyketh me wonder wele
Now vertu shall drawe atere atere
Herke felous a good sporte I can you tell
At the stues we wyll lye to nyght
And by my trouth yf all go aryght
I wyll begyle some pratty wenche
To gette me monays at a pynche
How saye you shall we go thyder
Let vs kepe company all togyder
And I wolde that we had goddes curse
If we some where do not get a purse
Euery man bere his dagger naked in his honde
And yf we mete a treue man make hym stonde
Or elles that he bere a strype
If that he struggle ond make ony werke
Lyghtly stryke hym to the herte
And throwe hym into temmes quyte
Naye thy knaues in a lease is good at nale
Fre wyll. But thou lubber Imagynacyon
That cukcolde thy fader where is he become
At newgate dothe he ly styll at gayle
Imagy. Auaut horesone thou shalte bere me a strype
Sayst thou that my moder was a hore
Fre wyll. Naye syr but the last nyght
I sawe syr Johne and she tombled on the flore
Now by rockes herte thou shalte lose an arme
Imagy. Naye syr I charge you do hym no harme Hyckscor And yf make to moche I wyll breke thy heed to Imagy. By saynt mary and I wyst that I wolde be ago
Hyckscor Ware a ware the horsone shall aby
Imagy. His preest wyll I be by rockes body

¶ Kepe peasse lest knaues blode be shedde Hycksco.
¶ By god yt hys was wought my was as badde Frewyll.
¶ By kockes herte he shall dye on this dager Imagy.
¶ By our lady then wyll ye be shraūgled in a halter Hycksco
¶ The horesone shall ere hy as fer as he shyll wade Imagy.
¶ Bethrewe your herte and put vp your blade Hycksco.
Shethe your whytell or by hys ỳ was neuer borne
I wyll rappe you on the coskarde with my horne
What wyll ye playe all the knaue
¶ By kockes herte and thou a buffet shalte haue ¶ Lo syrres here is a fayre company god vs saue Imagy.
For yt ony of vs thre be mayre of london Frewyll.
I wys y wys I wyll ryde to rome on my thom
Alas a se is not this a grete feres
I wolde they were in a myll pole aboue the eres
And thā I durst warraūt they wold departe anone
¶ Helpe helpe for the passyon of my soule Hycksco
He hath made a grete hole in my poule
That all my wytte is set to the grounde
Alas a leche for to helpe my wounde
¶ Naye ywys horesone I wyll bete the or I go Imagy.
¶ Alas good syr what haue I do Frewyll.
¶ Ware make rome he shall haue a strype I trowe Imagy.
¶ Peas peas syrres I commaunde you Pyte.
¶ Auaunt olde chorle whens comest thou Imagy.
And thou make to moche I shall breke thy browe
And sende the home agayne
¶ A good syr the peas I wolde haue kepte fayne Pyte.
Myne office is to se no man slayne
And where they do amysse to gyue thē good cōsayl
Synne to forsake and goddes lawe them tell

Imagy. ¶ A syr I wende thou haddest ben drowned & gone
But I haue spyed that there scaped one
Hycksor. ¶ Imagynacyon do by the counseyll of me
Be a greed with frewyll & lette vs good felowes be
And than as for this chorle pyte
Shall curse the tyme that euer he came to londe
Imagy. ¶ Brother frewyll gyue me your honde
And all myne yll wyll I forgyue the Frewyll. ¶ Syr I thanke you hertely
But what shall we do with this chorle pyte
Imagy. ¶ I wyll go to hym and pyke a quarell
And make hym a theefe and saye he dyde stele
Of myne forty pounde in a bagge
Frewyll. ¶ By god that tydynges wyll make hym sadde
And I wyll go fetche a payre of gyues
For in good faythe he shall beset fast by the heles
Hycksor. ¶ Haue ado lyghtly and be gone
And let vs twayne with hym alone
Frewyll. ¶ Now farewell I beshrewe you euery chone
Hycksor. ¶ Ho ho frewyll you threwe and no mo
Imagy. ¶ Thou lewde felowe sayst ÿ that thy name is pite
Who sente the hyder to controll me
Pyte. ¶ Good syr hyt is my properte
For to dyspyse synfull lyuynge
And vnto vertu men to brynge
Ik that they wyll do after me
Imagy. ¶ What syr arte thou so [illegible] holy
A-se this caytyfe wolde be prayed I trowe
And you thryue this yere I wyll lose a peny
Lo syres outwarde he bereth a fayre face
But and he mette with a wenche in a preuy place

I trowe he wolde shewe her but lytell grace
By god ye maye trust me
Loo wyll ye not se this caytyues menynge — Hycksco.
He wolde destroye vs all and all our kynne yet had I leuer se hym hanged by the chynne
Rather than that sholde be brought aboute
And with this dager thou shalte haue a cloute, without thou wylte be lyghtly be gone
Naye brother laye honde on hym soone — Imagy.
For he Japed my wyfe and made me cukolde
And yet the traytoue was so bolde
That he stale forty pounde of myne in monaye
By sayntmary than he shall not scape — Hycksco.
we wyll ledehym streyght to newgate
For euer there shall he lye
I se a se syres what I haue brought — Fredyll.
A medycyne for a payre of sore shynnes
At the kynges benche syres I haue you sought
But I praye you who shall were these
By god this felowe that maye not go hence — Hycksco.
I wyll go gyue hym these hose rynges
Now ylaythe they be worth forty pence
But to his hondes I lacke two bondes
Holde horesone here is an halter — Imagy.
Bynde hym fast and make hym sure
O men let trouth that is the trewe man
Be your guyder or elles ye be forlorne — Pyte.
Laye no fals wytnes as nye as ye can
On none for afterwarde ye wyll repent hyt full sore
Naye naye I care not therfore — Fredyll.
Eye whan my soule hãgeth on ỹ hedge call stones. — Hycksco.

For I tell the playnly by kockes bones
Thou shalte be guyded and layd in Irons
They fared euen so

Pyte: ¶ Iwaye syr what haue I do

Imagy. ¶ Well well that thou shalte knowe or thou go

Pyte. ¶ O syres I se hyt can not be amended you do me wronge for I haue not offended
Remembre god that is our heuen kynge
For he wyll rewarde you after your deseruynge
Whan deth with his mace dooth you arreest
We all to hym owe fewte and seruyce
Fro the ladder of lyfe downe he wyll the threste
Than mayesterlhyp may not helpe nor grete offyce

Frewyll. ¶ What dethe and he were here he sholde syt by ꝑ
Trowest thou that he be able to stryue w̄ vs thre
Nay nay nay

Imagy. ¶ Well felawes now let vs go our waye
For at shoters hyll we haue agame to playe

Hycksscor. ¶ In good fayth I wyll tary no lenger space

Frewyll. ¶ Byshrewe hym for me ꝑ is last out of this place

Pyte. ¶ Lo lordes they may curs ꝑ tyme they were borne
For the wedes that ouer groweth the corne
They troubled me gylteiesse and wote not why
For goddes loue yet wyll I suffre pacyently we all may say weleaway for synne ꝑ is now adaye
Loo vertue is vanyshed for euer and aye
Worse was hyt neuer
We haue plente of grete othes
And clothe ynoughe in our clothes
But charyte many men lothes
Worse was hyt neuer

Alas now is lechery called loue in dede
And murdure named manhode in euery nede
Extorcyon is called lawe so god me spede
Worse was hyt neuer
Youth walketh by nyght with swerdes & knyues
And euer amonge true men leseth theyr lyues
Lyke heretykes they occupy other mennes wyues
Now a dayes in englonde
Baudes be ỹ dyscryers of many yonge women
And full lewde counseyll they gyue vnto them
How you do mary beware you yonge men
The wyfe neuer taryeth to longe
There be many grete scorners
But for synne there be fewe mourners
We haue but fewe true louers
In no place now a dayes
There be many goodly gylte knyues
And I trowe as well apparayled wyues
Yet many of them be vntthryfty of theyr lyues
And all set in pryde to go gaye.
Wayers on synne dooth no correccyon
With gentyll men bereth trouthe adowne
Auoutry is suffred in euery towne
Amendyment is there none
And goddes cõmaundementes we breke them all.
Deuocyon is gone many dayes syn
Let vs amende vs we trewe crysten men
Or deth make you grone
Courtyers go gaye and take lytell wages
And many with harlottes at the tauerne haunte
They be yemen of the wethe ỹ be shakled in gyues

On themselfe they haue no pyte
God pitifyllyeth full sore with grete sekenesse
As pockes pestylence purple and axes
Some dyeth sodeynly that deth full perylous yet was there neuer so grete pouerte
There be some sermones made by noble doctoures
But truly the fende dothe stoppe mennes eres
For god nor good man some people not feres
worse was hyt neuer
All trouth is not best sayd
And our preachers now adayes be halfe afrayde whan we do amende god wolde be well apayde
worse was hyt neuer

Contem. What mayster pyte how is hyt with you

Perseue. Syr we be sory to se you in this case now

Pyte. Bretherne here were thre perylous men
Frewyll hyrkscorner and Imagynacyon
They sayd I was a theefe and layd felony vpon me
And bounde me in Irons as ye maye se

Contem. where be the traytours become now

Pyte. In good faythe I can not shewe you

Perseue. Brother let vs vnbynde hym of his bondes

Contem. Vnlose the fete and the hondes

Pyte. I thanke you for your grete kyndnes
That you two shewe in this dystresse
For they were men without ony mercy
That deyth all in myscheefe and tyranny

Perseue. I thynke they wyll come hyder agayne
Frewyll and Imagynacyon bothe twayne
Them wyll I exorte to vertuous lyuynge
And vnto vertu them to bryngе

By the helpe of you contemplacyon
¶ Do my counseyll brother pyte — Contem.
Go you and seke them throughe the countre
In vyllage towne bourghe and cyte
Throughe out all the realme of englonde
Whan you them mete lyghtly them aresst
And in pryson put them faste
Bynde them sure in Irons stronge
For they be so faste and sotyle
That they wyll you begyle
And do true men wronge
¶ Brother pyte do as he hath sayd — Perseue.
In euery quarter loke you aspye
And let good watche for them be layde
In all the haast that thou can and that pryuely
For and they come hyder they shall not scape
For all the crafte that they can make ¶ Well than wyll I hye me as fast as I maye — Pyte.
And travayle throughe euery countre
Good watche shall be layde in euery waye
That they stele not in to sentwary
Now fare wele bretherne and praye for me
For I must go hens in dede
¶ Now god be your good spende — Perseue.
¶ And euer you defende whan you have nede — Contem.
¶ Now bretherne bothe I thanke you — Pyte.
¶ Make you rome for a gentylman lyys and pease — Fredyll.
Duegarde seygnours tout le prealle
And of your Iangelynge yf ye wyll scase
I wyll tell you where I have bene
Syres I was at the tauerne and dronke wyne

Me thought I sawe a pece that was lyke myne
And syr all my fyngers were arayed with lyme
So I contrayued a cuppe manerly
And yet ywys I played all the sole
For there was a scoler of myne owne scole
And syr the horesone aspyed me
Than was I rested and brought in pryson
For woo than I wyste not what to haue done
And all Bycause I lacked monaye
But a frende in courteis worthe a peny in purs
For Imagynacyon myne owne selowe Iwys
He dyde helpe me out full craftely
Syres he walked thrughe holborne
Thre houres after the sonne was downe
And walked vp towarde saynte gyles in the felde
He houed styll and there behelde
But there he coude not spede of his praye
And strayght to ludgate he toke the waye ye wote well that potycaryes walke very late
He came to a dore and pryuely spake
To a prentes for a peny worth of vnorbyum
And also for a halfpeny worth of alom plomme
This good seruaunte serued hym shortely
And sayd is there ought elles that you wolde bye
Thā he asked for a mouth full of quycke brymstone
And downe in to ꝑ seller whā the seruāt was gone
Alyde as he kest his eye
A grete bagge of monaye dyde he spye
Therin was an hondred pounde
He trulled hym to his fete and yede his waye roūde
He was lodged at newgate at the swanne

And euery man toke hym for a gentyll man
So on the morowe he delyuered me
Out of newgate by this polyce
And now wyll I daunce an make tyall chere
But I wolde Imagynacyon were here
For he is perelesse at nede
Labour to hym syrres yf ye wyl your maters spede
Now wyll I synge and lustely spryngе
But whan my feters on my lecgis dyde rynge
I was not gladde perde but now hey trolly lolly
Let vs se who can descaunt on this same
To laughe and gete manaye hyt were a goed game
What whome haue we here
A preest a douctoure or elles a frere
What mayster doctour dotypoll
Can not you preche well in a blacke boll
Or dyspute ony dyuynyte
If ye be cunnynge I wyll put hyt in a preue
Good syr why do men ete mustarde with beke
My questyon can you assoyle me
Peas man thou talkest lewdly Perseue.
And of thy lyuynge I reed amende the Auaunt catyfe dooste thou thou me Frewyll.
I am come of good kynne I tell the
My moder was a lady of the stewes blode borne
And knyght of the halter my fader ware an horne
Therfore I take hyt in full grete scorne
That thou sholdest thus cheke me
Abyde kelowe thou cast lytell curtesye
Thou shalte be charmed or thou hens pase Contem.
For thou troubled pyte and layd on hym felonye
Hyt scor.

Where is Imagynacyon thy felawe that was

Frewyll I defy you bothe wyll you areste me

Perseue. Naye naye thy grete wordes maye not helpe the Fro vs thou shalte not escape

Frewyll. Make rome lyrres that I maye breke his pate
I wyll not be taken for them bothe

Contem. Thou shalt abyde whether thou be leue or lothe
Therfore good sone lysten vnto me
And marke these wordes that I do tell the Thou hast folowed thyne one wyll many a daye
And lyued in synne without amendement
Therfore in thy conceyte assaye
To axe god mercy and kepe his cõmaundement
Than on the he wyll haue pyte
And bryngе the to heuen that Ioyfull eyre

Frewyll What horesone wyll ye haue me now a fole
Naye yet had I leuer be captayne of calays
For and I sholde do after your scole
To lerne to pater to make me peuysse yet had I leuer loke with a face full theuysshe
And therfore prate no lenger here
Leest my knaues fyste hytte you vnder the yere what ye dawes wolde ye reed me
For to lesese my pleasure in youth and Iolyte
To balle and kysse my swete trully mully
As Jane cate belle and sybble
I wolde that hell were full of suche pryntes
Than wolde I renne thyder on my pynnes
As fast as I myght go

Perseue. Why syr wylte thou not loue vertu
And forsake thy synne for the loue of god almyghty

¶ What god almyghty by goddes fast at salysbury Frewyll
And I trowe ester day fell on whytsonday ỹ yere
There were .v. score saue an hondred in my cõpany
And at pety Judas we made ryall chere
There had we good ale of myghelmas bruyng
There heuen hye leppynge and sprynggynge
And thus dyde I
Lepe out of burdeaus vnto caunterbury
Almost ten myle bytwene
¶ Frewyll forsake all this worlde wylfully here
And chaunge by tyme ỹ oughtest to stonde in fere Contens
For fortune wyll tourne her whele to swyfte
That clene fro thy welthe she wyll the lyfte
¶ what lift me who & Imagínacõn were here now
Iwys with his fyst he wolde all tocloute you Frewyll
Hens horsone tary no lenger here
For by saynt pyntell the apostell I swere
That I wyll dryue you bothe home
And yet I was neuer wonte to fyght alone
Alas that I had not one to bolde me
Than you sholde se me playe the man shamfully
Alas hyt wolde do me good to fyght
How saye you lordes shall I smyte
Haue amonge you by this lyght
Hens horsones and home at ones
Or with my wepen I shall breke your bones
Auaunt you knaue walke by my counseyll
¶ Soye remembre the grete paynes of hell Perseue.
They are so horryble that no tonge can tell
Beware lest thou thyder do go ¶ Naye by saynt mary I hope not so.

I wyll not go to ꝯ deuyll whyle I haue my lyberte
He ſhall take ꝯ laboure to fet me ⁊ he wyl haue me
For he that wyll go to hell by his wyll boluntary
The deuyll and the worlewynde go with hym
I wyll you neuer fro thens tydynges bryngе
Go you before and ſhewe me the waye
And as to folowe you I wyll not ſaye naye
For by goddes body and you be in ones
By the maſſe I wyll ſhytte the doze at ones
And thau ye be take in a pytfall

Contem. Now Jheſus ſoone defende vs frome that hole
For (qui eſt in inferno nulla eſt redemptio)
Holy Job ſpake theſe wozdes full longe ago

Frewyll. Nay I haue done ⁊ you lade out latyn w̄ ſcopes
But therwith can you cloute me a payze of botes
By our lady ye ſholde haue ſome werke of me
I wolde haue them well vnderlayd and eaſely
For I vſe alwaye to go one the one ſyde
And trowe ye how by god in the ſtockes I ſate tyde
I trowe a thze wekes and moze a lytell ſtounde
And there I laboured foze daye by daye
And ſo I tred my ſhone inwarde in good faye
Lo therfoze me thynke you muſt ſoule them roſide
If you haue ony newe botes a payze I wolde by
But I thynke your payce be to hye
Syr ones at newgate I bought a payze of ſhertups
A myghty payze and a ſtronge
Whole yere I ware them ſo longe
But they came not fully to my knee
And to cloute them hyt coſt not me a peny
Euen now ⁊ ye go thyder ye ſhall fynde a grete heye

And yow speke of my name ye shall haue good chese
Why we came neuer there ne neuer shall do
Why I was taken in a trap there ye tyde by ye to
That I haited a grete whyle and myght not go
I wolde ye bothe sate as fast there
Than sholde ye daunce as a bere
And all all by gangelynge of your chaynes
Why syr were ye there
Lye and that is sene by my braynes
For or I came there I was as wyle as a woodcock
And I thanke god as wytte as a haddocke
Yet I trust to recouer as other dole
For and I had ones as moche wytte as a gose
I sholde be marchaunt of the banke
Of golde than I sholde haue many a franke
For yf I myzt make. iii. good byages to shoters hyl
And haue wynde and weder at my wyll
Than wolde I neuer trauell the see moze
But hyt is harde to kepe the shyppe fro the shoze
And yf hyt happe to ryse a stozme
Than thzowen in a rase and so aboute bozne
On rockes or brachis for to ronne
Elles to stryke a grounde at tybozne
That were a mysheuous case
For that rocke of tybozne is so perylous a place
Onge galauntes dare not venture in to kente
But whan theyr monaye is gone and spente
Pith theyr longe botes they rowe on the baye
And ony man of warre lye by the waye
They must take a bote and throwe the helme ale
And full harde hyt is to scape that grete Jeopardye Hyck for.

Perseue. Frewyll

Contem. Frewyll.

For at last thomas of watrynge & they strykea sayle
Thã muste they ryde in ỹ haue of hepe wout sayle
And were not these two Jeopertdo⁹ places in dede
Ther is many a marchaũt that thyder wolde spede
But yet we haue a sure caneil at westmynster
A thoulãde shyppes of thynes therin may ryde sure
For yt they may haue ankerholde & grete spedynge
They maye lyue as mery as ony kynge

Perseue. ¶ Good woote syr there is a pyteous spuynge
Than ye dyrde not the grete mayster aboue
Sone forsake thy mysse for his loue
And than mayst thou come to the dysse also

Frewyll. ¶ Why what wolde you that I sholde do

Contem. ¶ For to go towarde heuen

Frewyll. ¶ Mary and you wyll me thyder bryngе
I wolde do after you

Perseue. ¶ I praye you remembre my wordes now
Frewyll bethynke the that thou shalte dye
And of the houre thou arte vncertayne
Yet by thy lyfe thou mayst fynde a remedy
For and thou dye in synne all laboure is in vayne
Than shall thy soule be styll in payne
Loste and dampned for euermore
Helpe is past thoughe thou wolde fayne
Than thou wylte curse ỹ tyme that thou were bore

Frewyll. ¶ Syr yf ye wyll vndertake that I saued shall be
I wyll do all the penaunce that you wyll sette me

Contem. ¶ If that thou for thy synnes be sorye
Our lorde wyll forgyue the them

Frewyll. ¶ Now wo all my synnes I are god mercy
Here I forsake synne and trust to amende

I beleche Jhesu that is moost myghty
To forgyue all that I haue offende
¶ Our lorde now wyll shewe the his mercy Perseue.
A newe name thou nede none haue
For all that wyll to heuen hye
By his owne frewyll he must forsake folye
Than is he sure and saue ¶ Holde here a newe garment Contem.
And here after lyue deuoutly
And for thy synnes do euer penite
Sorowe for thy synne is the best remedy
And frewyll euer to vertue applye
Also to sadnes gyue attendaunce
Let hym neuer out of remembraunce
¶ I wyll neuer forsake you syr perseueraunce frewyll
With you wyll I abyde bothe daye and nyght
Of mynde neuer to be varyable
And goddes cõmandementes to kepe them tyght
In deed and worde and euer full stable
¶ Than heuen thou shalte haue without fable Perseue.
But loke that thou be stedfaste
And let thy mynde with good wyll laste
¶ Huffe huffe huffe who sent after me
I am Imagynacyon full of Jolyte Imagy.
Lorde that my herte is lyght
Whan shall I prey the I trowe neuer
By cryst I recke not a fether
Euen now I was dubbed a knyght where at tyborne of the collet
And of the stewes I am made controller
Of all the houses of lechery

There shall no man playe dooty there
At the bell hertes horne ne elles where without they haue leue of me
But fyftes wote ye why I am come hyder
By our lady togyder good company togyder
Saue ye not of my felawe frewyll
I am aferde lest he be ferthynge on a hyll
By god than one of vs is begyled what felawe is this that in this cote is kyled Rockes deth whome haue we here what Frewyll myn owne fere
Arte thou out of thy mynde

Frewyll ¶ God graũte the way to heuen that I may fynde
For I forsake thy company

Imagy. ¶ Goddes armes my company and why
Frewyll ¶ For thou lyuest to synfully
Imagy. ¶ Alas tell me how hyt is with the Frewyll. ¶ Forsake thy synne for the loue of me
Imagy. ¶ Rockes herte arte thou waxed made
Frewyll ¶ whã I thynke on my synne it makes me ful sade
Imagy. ¶ Goddes woundes who gaue the that counsell
Frewyll. ¶ Perseueraunce and contemplacyon I the tell
Imagy. ¶ I vengeaũce on them I wolde they were in hell
Frewyll ¶ Amende Imagynacyon and mercy crye
Imagy. ¶ By goddes sydes I hadde leuer be hãged on hye
Naye that wolde I not do I hadde leuer dye
By goddes passyon and I hadde a longe knyfe
I wolde bereue these two horsones of theyr lyfe
How how twenty pounde for a dagger

Contem. ¶ Peas peas good sone and speke softer
And amende or deth drawe his draught

For on the he wyl stele full softe
He gyueth neuer no man warnynge
And euer to the he is comynge
Therfore remembre the well
¶ A horesone yf I were Jayler of hell Imagy.
Iwys some sorowe sholde thou fele
For to the deuyll I wolde the sell
Than sholde ye haue many a sory mele
I wyll neuer gyue you mete ne dryncke
Ye sholde fast horesones tyll ye dyde stryncke
Euen as a roten dogge ye by sayne tyburne of kent ¶ Imagynacyon thynke what god dyd for the Perseue.
On good frydaye he hanged on a tre
And spent all his precyous blode
A spere dyde ryue his herte a sonder
The gates he brake vp with a clappe of thunder
And Adam and eue there delyuered he ¶ What deuyll what is that to me Imagy.
By goodes fast I was ten yere in newgate
And many more felawes with me sate
Yet he neuer came there to helpe me ne my cõpany ¶ Yes he holpe the or thou haddest not ben here now Contem.
By the masse I can not shewe you Imagy.
For he and I neuer dranke togyder yet I knowe many an ale stake
Neyther at ỳ stues I wyste hỳ neuer come thyder Gooth he arayed in whyte or in blacke
For and he out of pryson hadde holpe me
I knowe well ones I sholde hym se
What gowne wereth he I praye you
¶ Syr he halpe you out by his myght Perseue.

Imagy. ¶ I can not tell you by this lyght
But me thought that I laye there to longe
And the horesone fetters were so stronge
That hadde almost brought my necke out of Joynt
Perseue. ¶ Amende sone and thou shalt knowe hym
That delyuered the out of pryson
And yf thou wylt forsake thy mysse
Surely thou shalt come to the blysse
And be inherytoure of heuen
Imagy. ¶ What syr aboue the mone
Naye by the masse than sholde I fall soone
Yet I kepe not to clymme so hye
But to clymme for a byrdes nestte
There is none bytwene eest and weste
That dare therto ventre better than I
But to ventre to heuen what and my fete slyppe
I knowe well than I sholde breke my necke
And by god than hadde I the worse syde yet had I leuer be by the nose tyde
In a wenches ars somewhere
Rather than I wolde stande in that grete fere
For to go vp to heuen naye I praye you lette be Frewyll ¶ Imaginacyon wylte ỹ do by the coũseyll of me Imagy. Ye syr by my trouthe what someuer it be Frewyll. ¶ Amende yet for my sake
Hyt is better be tyme than to late
How saye you wyll you goddes hestes fulfyll
Imagy. ¶ I wyll do syr euen as you wyll
But I praye you let me haue a newe cote
Whan I haue nede and in my purse a grote
Than wyll I dwell with you styll

¶ Beware for whan ỹ arte buryed in the grounde Frewyll
Fewe frendes for the wyll be founde
Remembre this [illegible]
¶ No thynge dred I so lore as deth Imagy.
Therfore to amende I thynke hyt be tyme
Synne haue I vsed all the dayes of my breth
With pleasure lechery and mysusynge
And spent amys my .v. wyttes therfore I am sory
Here of all my synnes I axe god mercy ¶ Holde here is a better clothynge for the Perseue.
And loke that thou forsake thy foly
Be stedfast loke that thou fall neuer
¶ Now here I forsake my synne for euer Imagy.
¶ Syr wayte thou now on perseueraunce Frewyll.
For thy name shall be called good remembraunce
And I wyll dwell with contemplacyon
And folowe hym where euer he become ¶ Well are ye so bothe agrede Contem.
¶ Ye syr so god me spede Imagy.
¶ Syr ye shall wete on me soone Perseue.
And be goddes seruaunt daye and nyght
And in euery place where ye become Gyue good counseyle to euery wyght
And men are your name tell you remembraunce
That goddes lawe kepeth truly euery daye
And loke that ye forget not repentaunce
Than to heuen ye shall go the nexte waye
Where ye shall se in the heuenly quere
The blessyd company of sayntes so holy
That lyued deuouly whyle they were here
Unto the whiche blysse I beseche god almyghty

To bryngе there your soules that here be present
And vnto vertuous lyuynge that ye maye applye
Truly for to kepe his commaundemente
Of all our mythes here we make an ende
Into the blysse of heuen Jhesu your soules bryngе

AMEN.
